Yvette Healy is one of the best softball coaches UW has seen—on and off the field. With the highest winning percentage of any UW coach in the program's history, the Badgers have earned bids to the NCAA Tournament, and UW players have received many Big Ten and National honors.

Off the field, Healy was instrumental in the team's community service participation. She was a part of numerous campaigns to give back, including the Strike Out Cancer Fundraiser for the Susan G. Komen Foundation.

Healy's teams have also excelled in the classroom. The 2010 team was the recipient of the 2010 NCAA Academic Performance Program APR Award, while nine players in her time were named Academic All-District by ESPN the Magazine and 25 were chosen as Scholar Athletes by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association.

Prior to her collegiate coaching career, Healy worked for the Chicago Bulls and Chicago White Sox Academy as Director of Marketing. She also served as head softball coach at her alma mater Providence Catholic High School, where she was the salutatorian at her graduation in 1995.

Healy graduated cum laude and earned her bachelor's degree in marketing and communications from DePaul in 1999 and her master's in secondary education and English from DePaul in 2007. She and her husband Shawn have been
