- 1. Take Time For Teamwork Industry
Strong teams are necessary to deliver results that we all desire. In this workshop Carl Olson will present information on the team process and how enhance and develop it. There are six stages in team building. All groups go through these stages and in order to maximize our recourses we need to move our teams to the advance levels. Activities and methods will be presented to move all groups to a high level. Carl Olson has thirty-six years of experience and training to draw upon. His workshop will be fast paced, hands-on and informative. Participants will leave with practical, easy to use methods and information for future study.
Presenter: Carl Olson, Professional Speaker and Trainer
- 2. Building a Winning Team Chemistry and a Shared Vision Northwoods B
Join Stephanie Hauser, new WIAA Assistant Director and former Athletic Director/Assistant Principal at SPASH, for the breakout session “Building a Shared Vision.” Team leaders have a responsibility to facilitate a positive climate within their group. Together, as leaders, we will examine the intentional actions of team leaders and their teammates to create a shared vision, which helps to guide them to achieve greatness. Participants will gain the tools to take back to their “team” to build their own winning culture through a shared vision.
Presenter: Stephanie Hauser, WIAA Assistant Director
- 3. UW Student-Athletes Lead On and Off the Field Agriculture
Student-athletes at the University of Wisconsin-Madison will talk about their leadership both in the classroom and on the field. They will explain how their leadership skills help them in their daily lives and helped them in their journeys to get where they
Presenter: UW Athletes
- 4. Keeping it Real and Safe for your School and Community Landmark
Join two of the most decorated and renowned Officers as they share with you the importance of keeping things calm in challenging times. Charles Tubbs, with Homeland Security and Sue Riseling, Former Chief of UW Police, have worked with variety of people in conflict and challenging situations. They will share their stories of triumph and defeat, and offer insight on creating a positive school culture
Presenter: Charles Tubbs, Homeland Security—Susan Riseling, Executive Director of International?
- 5. Ethical Student Leadership Traditions
Student discussion will examine ethical dilemmas faced by student leaders using a suggested framework for ethical decision making. The focus will be on decision-making by students using thought-provoking insights to address ethical issues that arise in schools, among friends and peers and in the community.
Presenter: Bob Shumaker, Rotary Club of Madison, Attorney and Law School Instructor
- 6. Let’s D.R.I.V.E.!..... Northwoods A
A breakout session that empowers these student leaders to take better care of themselves, which in turn will make them stronger to serve others.
