Breakout Sessions

Team Building

Join some of our esteemed camp leaders as they introduce you to the “magic” of camp and facilitate some fun. Get ready to build your team in an engaged way!

Presenter: WASC Summer Camp Leadership

Stress of Leadership

Not to state the obvious, but student leaders face a lot of stress. In this session, we'll discuss our "big rocks," brainstorm and practice self care strategies, examine how stress relates to mental health, and think about how we can support others dealing with stress. Start thinking about where you want to go on your one minute vacation!

Presenter: Kristin Kilkenny, Region IV Advisor & Jim Kramer, Retired Advisor

Engagement Through Service – Strategies to keep your people involved

Service is a big part of leadership. Join H2O For Life and learn about the benefits of engaging your student body in service, best practice for facilitating a service project, and network about possible service projects.

Presenter: Danielle Krueger – H2O for Life Coordinator

Ironman Leadership –Win the Race for Friends and Funds

Reaching the finish line of an Ironman triathlon requires complete dedication, high levels of energy, and a wide network of support. Finding success with stuco... exactly the same! This session will show you how to create, and maximize, the resources around you, to reach the ultimate goal: marketing and $$.

Presenter: Bjorn Berg

Parliamentary Procedure

Running a productive, organized meeting is essential. Join our experts as they share the basics of Parliamentary Procedure in a fun, creative way.

Presenters: Robert Schuck and Christina Emmert
Registered Parliamentarians
Wisconsin Association of Parliamentarians President
National Association of Parliamentarians District Four Director

NOTES:

Special Sessions:

Student Voice:

Engaging students in the decision making process at school is a must as we prepare our young people for the journey ahead. Learn more about the importance of student voice, the schools already implementing strategies, and how you begin the process in your school. Our goal is to amplify, aggregate and accelerate the work of students in their pursuit of representation.

Presenter: Dr. Michelle McGrath & Keith Johnson

The Art of Followership:

Followership is a prerequisite to all forms of leadership. Followership is about following a code; a set of principles, values, and ideals in the pursuit of self-identity and being. When leaders learn to master the art of discerning and following such things, they become worthy of being followed by others who believe in the same things. Followership is about understanding the order of things: Thoughts become attitudes, attitudes become actions, actions become habits, habits become character and character becomes destiny.

Presenter: Romy Blystone

Andrew McPeak

Director of Program Excellence at Growing Leaders

Andrew is a millennial speaker and content developer with Growing Leaders. His experiences as both a presenter and curriculum designer have led him to become well-versed in communicating to and about the next generation. He works closely with schools, universities, companies and sports teams and implementing Habitudes as a tool to teach leadership skills. Most notably, Andrew is a co-author alongside Dr. Tim Elmore on their latest book Marching off the Map. Marching off the Map presents information on the world's newest generation of students and helps educators understand how to best connect with and lead them in the classroom

Attorney Shana R. Lewis

Strang Pattenon Renning Lewis & Lacy

Shana has extensive experience in labor and employment law, school and higher education law, and municipal law. She represents private and public sector employers in a broad range of labor and employment law matters, including family and medical leave, harassment, employment contracts, and collective bargaining. Shana's practice focuses on representing school districts throughout Wisconsin on issues ranging from labor and employment matters to pupil discipline, open meetings, public records, and other matters of import to Wisconsin schools. She also has significant experience conducting investigations for private and public sector entities concerning allegations of harassment, bullying, and discrimination involving staff and/or students.

NHS Strand:

Elancia Felder joins us from the National Association of Secondary School Administrators. The National Honor Society is the nation's premier organization established to recognize outstanding high school students. Elancia is the Manager of Programs and Policies for NHS.
