

Advisor's Checklist

November 2018

“ QUOTE OF THE MONTH ”

“I learned to always take on things I'd never done before.
Growth and comfort do not coexist.”

– Ginni Rometty

MONTHLY TO DO'S

DESCRIPTION	ASSIGNED TO	DUE BY	DONE
Senior Checklist Board: A great showcase to add to a busy hallway is a “Senior Checklist.” This board shows a generic timeline for college applications, scholarships and financial aid deadlines and other common deadlines. Add an “ACCEPTED” header and take pictures of students holding their acceptance letters!
Host a Blood Drive: The Red Cross makes hosting your own blood drive easy, efficient and powerful for your entire schools to contribute too. Hosting a blood drive is one of the most important service projects a schools can engage in. For more information on hosting a blood drive at your school, visit http://www.redcrossblood.org/hosting-blood-drive
School Swap: This is great time of the year to set up a student-swap with your local neighborhood sister high school or local middle school. Students can witness firsthand how operations and meetings are run, how events are planned, and the promotions put up around each school! This is a great way to collaborate and learn new ideas.
Thanksgiving Meeting Party: Plan a themed thanksgiving party for an after school meeting, complete with snacks. This is a great moral buster after homecoming season and allows the chance to reward your groups commitment with treats while they focus on what's ahead. Double down and make this a service project, food drive! Have a few student leaders start this project planning now.

OPPORTUNITIES

DESCRIPTION	ASSIGNED TO	DUE BY	DONE
2018-19 State Conference & Competitions: State Conference is right around the corner! Consider assigning a student ambassador or committee to take a deeper look into each competition at State Conference. All schools are encouraged to use these platforms as a way to not only recognize strong school leaders, but also for program development. State Conference registration opens January 1st. Get more information at: http://wasc.org/events/shs-conference-competition-program/
WASC Leadership Day with the Milwaukee Bucks: Join us on December 10 at the new Fiserv Forum for a day of a combination of fun and education throughout the afternoon and the Milwaukee Bucks in the night. The Milwaukee Bucks Organization, in collaboration with the WASC, will provide entertainment and speakers talking about leadership. For more information, please visit: http://wasc.org/events/leadership-day-with-the-bucks/
Readiness and Emergency Management for Schools: REMS is a federal initiative which provides K-12 school districts with the means to develop an effective Emergency Operations Plan (EOP). The REMS website also has a toolbox which makes available exemplary components of a good EOP, including assessing risk. Find out more at: https://dpi.wi.gov/sspw/safe-schools

JUST FOR FUN

DESCRIPTION	ASSIGNED TO	DUE BY	DONE
Monthly Icebreaker: No one's too old for compliments! This energizer lets students feel better about themselves by sharing compliments. Each student gets a paper on their back. Every student has to write down a compliment on the paper on the backs of every other student. They cannot miss a single one. Afterwards the students can read their paper and all the compliments they have been given.
“National Day” Celebrations: November 6th is National Nacho Day! Prepare some nachos to enjoy at your Student Council meeting and use #NationalNachosDay to post on social media. Nearly every day there is a “National Day” like this to celebrate. This can be a fun and engaging project for leaders to be creative and recognize your student, staff and community populations. Check out the National Day Calendar at: nationaldaycalendar.com.
